FOOT CRUSHED.

Painful Accident at the Boiler Works Saturday Afternoon.

Mr. James Dilley, an employe of the Marietta Boiler Works, met with a painful accident Saturday and will be off duty for some time. While working at a machine cutting steel plate a heavy piece of the metal fell on his foot, crushing it badly. His shoe was cut through and the sharp edge of the steel lacerated his toes to the bone. An artery was cut and the wound bled fearfully, but prompt surgical attention prevented any serious consequences.

HANDSOME REMEMBRANCE.

Our Prediction of Marshal Dye's Gold-bugism Comes True.

Marshal J. H. Dye is the proud possessor of a handsome gold Marshal's badge and a gold-headed cane which were presented to him Saturday night by a number of his friends. The Marshal was called on for a speech which he cheerfully made in acknowledgment of the valuable remembrance.

Postoffice Sensation.

Somewhat of a sensation was created Saturday by an employe of the National Supply Company purchasing $75.00 worth of stamps and tendering the check of Postmaster Rorer in payment. Mr. Rorer objected to the check and claims that he had payment of it protested on the ground that he found after giving it that he had not got value received. The case is somewhat mixed up and will be watched with interest.

First Game Wednesday.

Manager McKeever and the balance of the players of the Marietta baseball team who are here will leave tomorrow for Dayton, O., where they will be joined by Williams, Donahue, Shires and Hutchins and cross bats with the Dayton club on Wednesday and Thursday. As this will be the first meeting of all the members of the local team, no particularly brilliant results are expected.

Mitchell-Pattin.

The Rev. F. R. Crooks, West Side, performed the ceremony Sunday, the 18th, which made one Mr. Alexander Mitchell, of New Matamoras, and Miss Maggie L. Pattin, daughter of Mr. James Pattin, of Fairview Heights. The marriage occurred at the Gilman Avenue Parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will make their home at New Matamoras.

Killed Two People.

A Friday dispatch from Bellaire says. In a drunken fight in a shanty boat this morning, Jim Williams, the boat owner, killed his wife and Charles Horner with a club and then cut the boat loose and floated down the river with the dead bodies. This story is told by William Peeples, one of the combatants, who escaped badly beaten.

Express Matter Sold.

Marshal Dye auctioned off Saturday a large number of packages of unclaimed goods in possession of the United States Express company. Most of the stuff was absolutely worthless to the purchaser, but the uncertainty of the contents of the parcels induced many to buy in the hope of striking a prize.

Will Remove to Marietta.

Manager McKeever, of the Marietta baseball club, who came here from Pittsburg, likes this city so well that he expects to make it his permanent home. His father, who is an expert boiler maker, contemplates removing here to accept a position in the Marietta Boiler Works.

New Paint Company.

Mr. C. J. Layelle, who has had charge of the finishing department at Lobdell's Rim Works, and who established the Marietta Paint and Color Company, has decided to enlarge the plant and is now in the East purchasing material and machinery.

Will Cambridge Play Ball?

We learn the following in regard to base ball matters in this city, from the Zanesville Evening Press, who has surely been misinformed, as the chances for Cambridge being in the play is very slim at the present writing:

"The statement from an unreliable source to the effect that the proposed base ball club at Cambridge is about to abandon on account of the projectors having not yet put up the required $500 is absolutely false and utterly without foundation. It was learned from responsible authorities today that the reason the $500 guarantee has not been advanced is because the stockholders have not as yet been notified to do so and the amount can and will be raised in a very few days. Guy Hecker has signed twelve players, all of whom are recognized base ballists and the outlook for a successful season in our sister city is very promising."

If Guy Hecker or any one else wants to play a team in Cambridge they will do so without a $500 guarantee, or any other kind of a guarantee. The ball park and suits have been tendered Manager Hecker, and as far as the $500 guarantee is concerned, it was not asked for, and we are informed by one who has authority to say so, that no guarantee would be tendered any one to place a team here, and if the twelve players have been signed for Cambridge the ball park people here have never been informed of the fact.—Sun.

When bilious or constive, eat a Cascaret, candy cathartic cure guaranteed. 10c. 25c.

Donahue, c.
Williams, rf.
Shiers, 1b.

HOBOS CAMPING OUT.

Vicinity of Duck Creek Infested by a Score of Tramps.

Recently residents in the neighborhood of Duck Creek have complained of the large number of tramps infesting that neighborhood, and Officer Lanam went out Sunday to investigate. He found about twenty-five of the gentlemen encamped in squads in different localities, but as they were all outside the city limits he was unable to take any action.

Many of these fellows have been camping near the city for weeks and there is no doubt that much petty thieving is attributable to them. They make a practice of sneaking into the city at night and prompt measures should be taken to disperse them.

Tomorrow Night.

Tomorrow night the people of Marietta will have the opportunity of witnessing Grand Opera by the famed De Pasquali Company. The seat sale for this great attraction was opened at A. J. Richards' Drug Store Saturday morning, and from present indications a large house will greet the company. Concerning this attraction the Tiffin, O., Daily Advertiser says:

"To the members of the Wednesday Musical Club is entitled the credit for providing the lovers of fine operatic music with the grandest entertainment that ever took place in Noble's opera house."

One of the largest audiences that ever assembled in that play-house greeted the DePasquali Grand Opera Company Wednesday evening, and not one of the large assemblage has reason for regretting having been there.

The numbers rendered were one act from "Faust," "Martha" and "Cavallaria Rusticana." Between the first two numbers Edward M. Shonert rendered two magnificent piano solos—the famous second Rhapsody by Liszt and an original Paraphrase.
It is useless to comment upon the singing of the members of the De Pasquali Company—suffice it to say, that nothing finer in the way of operatic or any other kind of singing was ever heard in this city.

Grand Ball.

The grandest ball of the season will be given by the Marietta Minstrel Fishing Club at Electric Power Hall, Tuesday evening, April 20th, at 8 o'clock standard time. All respectable people are invited to attend. A. H. Tracey, Promoter.
